

things to do in greater Knysna

Tick		Free	Rainy	Kids
	Mountain bike, walk or trail run in our magnificent indigenous forests and nature reserves: various locations	some	can do	yes
	Adventure activities include Knysna Ziplines, gyrocopter flights, sandboarding, paragliding and more: various operators	no	can do	some
	Enjoy the Knysna Estuary, lagoons & rivers by boat, ferry, yacht, kayak or SUP: various operators	no	yes	yes
	Play a round of golf at one of the 3 magnificent 18-hole courses or 2 family-friendly mashie courses	no	can do	mashie
	Photographic or bird watching tours: various operators	no	can do	can do
	Book a tour with a local tourist guide to learn about our local routes, cultures and heritage or visit the Old Gaol Museum to learn more about the history of Knysna	no	yes	yes
	Follow the timber history of Knysna: Millwood House in Queen Street, Diepwalle Forest Museum, Timber Village and Thesen Harbour Town	some	yes	yes
	Visit the many craft shops for locally made curios	no	yes	yes
	Savour the tastes of local oysters, beer, wine, or gin	no	yes	some
	Relax and enjoy sundowners and food at one of our many eateries/restaurants	no	yes	yes
	Feel invigorated by our many offerings of wellness, health and fitness	some	yes	some
	Snap a selfie at various viewpoints including: Knysna's Eastern Head, Margaret's viewpoint on Brenton-On-Sea Road, Spitzkop on the Prince Alfred Pass (R339) or Cloud 9 in Sedgfield.	yes	yes	yes
	Spend a day on the beach: swim, tan, walk and discover our beautiful coastline	yes	can do	yes
	Learn to surf at Buffalo Bay or Sedgfield: various operators	can do	can do	yes
	Snorkel and play in the gulleys and rock pools at Buffalo Bay and Gericke's Point, Sedgfield	can do	can do	yes
	Beach walk from Brenton-On-Sea to Buffalo Bay or in Sedgfield - to Gericke's Point or one of the other beach options	yes	can do	yes
	Pet friendly walks: Steenbok Nature Reserve on Leisure Isle and Pledge Nature Reserve in the centre of Knysna	some	can do	yes
	Take a leisurely walk alongside the Knysna Estuary on one of the many walkways or stroll the streets to discover the many "nooks and crannies"	yes	can do	yes
	View the Knysna seahorses at SANParks offices on Thesen Islands	yes	yes	yes
	Visit the Knysna Elephant Park or get lost in the forest with renowned author, Gareth Paterson in order to learn more about the Knysna Elephants	no	can do	yes
	Knysna Waterfront: one of the most popular leisure and shopping destinations in the region	yes	yes	yes
	Visit the many art galleries and art exhibitions (including in some of the hotels/restaurants)	some	yes	can do
	Art lessons at various locations	no	yes	yes
	A must do is a visit to one of our many local markets	yes	can do	yes
	Guitar lessons and music shop at Oaks On Main, Knysna	no	yes	yes
	Kids cycle pump track / play park: at The Farm on Simola Hill or at the Garden Route Trail Park	no	can do	yes
	Knysna Scootours in the forest	no	can do	yes
	Pack a picnic and visit Jubilee Creek in the Millwood Forest, Rheenendal; take a 3.6km walk to the swimming hole and waterfall	no	can do	yes
	Visit the Mosaic Garden in Sedgfield	yes	can do	yes
	Family games, trampolines, putt putt and fairy garden at Totties Farm Kitchen, Rheenendal - and then enjoy a meal while there	yes	can do	yes
	Pick your own blueberries at Homtini Guest Farm, Rheenendal (seasonal)	no	can do	yes
	Children's play areas at Thesen Island playground, the play park at Cathy's Park on George Rex Drive and at The Village Café or Gemstone scratch at 34 Degrees South restaurant.	yes	can do	yes
	Visit the local library: consider a Dalene Matthee novel, Gareth Patterson's "The Secret Elephants" or "Knysna: 250 Years of History" by Steve Collinson.	yes	yes	yes
	Auto sport enthusiasts can visit various outlets: House of Classic & Sports Cars in Knysna Central, Sedgfield Classic Cars, Frost Brothers in Knysna Industrial and The Motorcycle Room on Thesen Islands.	no	yes	yes
	Drive the 7-Passes Road between Knysna and George (gravel road): various route options	yes	can do	yes